

Here are a couple of formatted Bible reading plans you might look at

<https://www.clarion-call.org/downloads/one%20year%20bible%20reading.pdf>

<https://www.christkirk.com/wp-content/uploads/2021/08/2021-22-ENGLISH.pdf>

<http://www.expository.org/biblereadingplan.pdf>

<https://www.navigators.org/wp-content/uploads/2021/12/navigators-bible-reading-plan.pdf>

Here are a couple of Electronic plans:

Electronic plans that have numerous translations, various types of plans, options to receive by email, and usually some audio options. Except for Bible Gateway, you can start on any day, not necessarily on January 1.

1. <https://www.christianity.com/bible/year/>

Can also receive a daily devotionals by email—and you sign up for the series you want. <https://www.christianity.com/newsletters/#weekly-devotionals>

2. “Bible Gateway” free app or

<https://www.biblegateway.com/reading-plans/> Includes audio Bible.

3. “YouVersion Bible” app, also free. Go to Plans - Find Plans- Through the Bible. Then it offers many different plans to choose from. Some also offer related materials, like videos, devotionals, notes, etc. You might try the Bible Project reading plan, which includes good extras.

4. “Read Scripture” free app from the Bible Project. Helpful short videos and more.